

I. W. W. PAPERS RAIDED
BY FEDERAL OFFICIALS*Arrested Employees and Editor and Seized Entire Newspaper Plant.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 15.—Raids were conducted in Washington and Oregon cities to-day by State and Federal officials on Industrial Workers of the World headquarters and many arrests were made of alleged members of the organization.

Gov. A. L. Art, of Washington, announced that he would start a State-wide campaign to wipe out Industrial Workers of the World. Bolsheviks and other radicals and called upon all State officials to co-operate in the work with Federal and county officers. The Governor received messages asking him to convene the Legislature to pass stringent anti-radical laws.

Federal officers raided the office of the Seattle Union Record, seized the entire plant and arrested several employees, including E. B. Ault, editor. The raids were the outgrowth of the killing of four former service men in Centralia Tuesday by alleged I. W. W's.

Seventy-four alleged members of the Industrial Workers were arrested in a hall in Spokane, and in Portland, Ore., men alleged to be members of the organization were being held for examination. One of the men arrested in Portland, Frank Briley, told authorities he believed the Centralia outrage was a "frame-up against the I. W. W."

Papers Raided
The raid on the Union Record made on instructions from Washington, according to Robert C. Sanders, United States District Attorney. Federal officers also seized the plant of the Equity Printing Company and arrested Walker C. Smith, editor of the International Weekly, which is printed in the Equity shop. Smith was charged with violating the espionage act.

Ault, editor, George P. Listman, president of the board of directors of the Record, and Frank A. Rust, secretary manager of the Seattle Labor Temple Association, were arrested charged with violation of the espionage act. The Record is owned by the Seattle Central Labor Council.

Deputy United States marshals ordered a truckload of copies of the mail edition, which was about to leave the office, to be unloaded.

After taking papers and records from the office, the Federal officers allowed the paper to resume publication.

Ault, Listman and Rust later were released on $5,000 bail each, but Ault was rearrested immediately on a charge of criminal libel.

The libel complaint said his editorials defamed the four former service men killed at Centralia. He was released on $1,000 bail on the second charge.

During Seattle's general strike in February it was charged by city officials that the Equity plant printed most of the alleged inflammatory posters and handbills distributed about the city. Ole Hanson, then Mayor, closed the plant for a time.

Washington, Nov. 15.—Large orders for arms and ammunition, placed by Mexico in Belgium, and Spain in preparation for the possibility of American intervention, came to light today when the state department let it become known that the government has taken steps to prevent their shipment. The United States embassy in Brussels protested that the shipment of munition violates the international arms convention, but Spain is not a party to the agreement. Mr. Lehmann showed the remarkable growth of the Endeavor movement, with a goal of 1000 new societies in five years. 1874 new societies have been formed in 2 years and 8 months. THREE EX-SERVICE MEN
KILLED ON PARADE*Armistice March Fired On From Red Hall In Centralia, Washington.

Centralia, Wash., Nov. 15.—Three former soldiers, members of the American Legion, were killed, one other Service man was probably fatally wounded and several other soldiers were less seriously but when persons said to be members of the Industrial Workers of the World fired on an Armistice Day parade today as it passed the I. W. W. hall.

A fourth soldier was killed by a shot from one of the I. W. W. who had fled with a mob in pursuit.

Britt Smith, Secretary of the I. W. W. local, was taken from the jail here to-night and lynched.

At least eight supposed Industrial Workers of the World are in the local jail, guarded from a mob of several hundred friends of the men shot down to-day.

The dead are: Arthur McElfresh, Centralia; Ben Casagrande, Centralia; Warren Grimm, Centralia, and Dale Hubbard. John Earl Watt may die of his wounds. Hubbard died late to-night.

Shots From Windows

The shooting began when the parade drew abreast of the I. W. W. Hall, according to witness, the bullets going over the heads of the crowds watching the parade. Onlookers say shots came from every direction and that snipers in the upper windows of the I. W. W. Headquarters Building fired into the line.

McElfresh was killed instantly, Grimm, formerly a Lieutenant, was leading a platoon in the parade and fell at the second burst of fire, fatal wounds.

George Stevens of Centralia, attempted to disarm an alleged I. W. W. and was wounded in the struggle which ensued. Hubbard sustained his wound in pursuing a supposed I. W. W. who fired as he ran from the ununiformed, started the chase.

Red Headquarters Wrecked

Casagrande was in the ranks and a rifle bullet struck him in the body. "They got me this time," he said as he doubled up and fell in the street. The crowd, uniformed and ununiformed, started the chase.

Gathering up persons suspected of affiliation with the radical order, some of the service men took them to jail, while others of the marchers tore out the front of the building where the I. W. W. headquarters is located, seized and burned a quantity of literature and all the furniture and distributed among themselves and Centralia citizens the arms and ammunition stored in the headquarters.

According to ex-service men, who said they were present, Hubbard's party caught the man they were chasing after he had fired at them several times on the banks of the Skookumchuck River, a small stream which runs through the town. Hubbard and the man grappled, they said, and the supposed I.

W. W. fired directly into Hubbard's body. George Stevens, another of the crowd chasing the gunman, kicked the pistol from the I. W. W's hands.

A rope then was placed about the man's neck, thrown over the cross-arm of a telephone pole, and he was hoisted into the air. The police pursued the crowd to let the man down before he was dead, and he was taken to jail.
